Appⁿ from Rᵃᵗ M. R. Krishna Rao Accountant Probationer, praying that Govt will kindly consider his claims in filling up the Vacancies caused by the death of Rᵃᵗ S. G. Padmanabha Iyer Prob. Asstˢ Commr.

Note

Rᵃᵗ M. R. Krishna Rao states:-

(1). that he learns that some successful candidates in the recent Civil Service Examination of 1901 have already put forward their claims for the Vacant pl

(2). that he has a better claim for the post, in having passed the same examination far earlier, i.e., in 1897 and being one of the only 3 Mysoreans who were successful in that year,

(3). that he has been in the Gazetted Service, as an Account Probationer for the last five years and thus is far senior to any of the ~~others~~ later applicants

(4). that he held the Office of Chief Asst to the Comptroller for one year — a place which carries the ~~pla~~ pay of an Asstˢ Commr and is graded with it-

^ than any of them

(5). that he has been in charge of the Local Fund and Excise Deptt. of the Comptroller's Office for more than 3 years and has worked to the entire satisfaction of the Comptroller,

(6). and lastly that he has qualified himself for the place, as it were, by passing the First Examination in Law of the Madras University and the Local Revenue Test.

The Comptroller, in recommending the applicant for the favourable consideration of Govt., adds that he would be glad to see Mr. Krishna Ro's prospects in service substantially improved even at the cost of losing his invaluable services in his (Comptroller) Office.

The Comptroller reports that

His (47) 99-7-03.

Mr. M. N. Krishna Rao, after undergoing training in the Madras Accountant General's office and passing the Higher departmental Examination for Enrolled Officers of the ~~British~~ Financial Deptt, has returned to duty. He recommends that Mr Krishna Rao may be appointed from 13th April 1903 as Assistant to the Comptroller on an initial pay of Rs 300 rising to Rs 450/- by an annual increment of Rs 50/-.

The Govt in their order of 20th Nov 1896, while asking the Comptroller to submit a scheme for training competent account officers laid out certain lines for the Comptroller's guidance - In ~~para~~ Sub-para 3 of the order it is stated as follows:—

Paper B. in file 90 of 1896-9 No. 4670 of 20.11.96. PC 349

"Payment of Rs 150/ per mensem to each of them at first start with prospect of getting Rs 200 on passing the Lower Deptl Examination & Rs 250/ on passing the Higher Deptl Examination prescribed for enrolled Officers".

The Comptroller states that he proposes Rs 300/- instead of Rs 250/- as the initial pay because Mr Krishna Rao had already qualified himself by his capacity, diligence & industry for an independent charge of a Deptt in his office for over 3 years & officiated as Chief Asstt for nearly a year before he went to ~~Calcutta~~ Madras for training and passed the ~~Higher~~ Examn at one sitting and in the very first Nine account Probationers were appointed and their position & results were laid down in S.O. No. $\frac{451}{349}$ dated 20.11.96 vide "somewhat" on the same lines as Civilian apptments of Schedule B. Two of the nine Probationers thus appointed were sent to Madras, where they ~~as~~ examinations & the third Mr Kushwaha could not be sent as he could not be spared - The other two failed more than once and have still not passed - Mr Kushwaha on the other hand passed his examns very creditably on the very first occasion he was sent and the testimonials he has secured ~~from~~ indicate the possibility of his making a good account of self - Medical in passing the examn is not due to his own neglect and it is therefore proposed, in consultation with the recommendation of the Comptroller, that he may be given his 3 advances above - His service began on 27.11.97 L and he is therefore in his 6th year of service - This proposal is fair - A some difference was intended to be observed between the civilian Asst Comrs and Mers around & it is now recommended that the maximum may stop with 400 Rs and that Mr Krishnaraw may get it in four years by two biennial increments of fifty Rs. It is also proposed that he should be styled Asst Comptroller and as there is Mr Eagles already such with that designation Mr Krishna Rao may be styled IInd Asst Comptroller.

Sir,

The death of Mr.S.G. Padmanaba Aiyengar creates a vacancy in the list of Probationery Assistant Commissioners and I am given to understand that some candidates who have passed the Mysore Civil Service Examination are urging thoir claims for consideration in connexion with the disposal of the vacancy. I was the third of the only 3 Mysore Candidates that passed the Mysore Civil Service Examination in 1897;2 of the 3 candidates were appointed Assistant Commissioners and I was appointed a Probationer in the Account Department and I have thus been in the Gazetted service of the Government for five years. In the year 1900 you were kind enough to recommend me to the Government to appoint me to officiate as Chief Assistant to Comptroller-a post with a progressive pay of Rs.250 rising to Rs.450. The Government were pleased to sanction your recommendation and I officiated as Chief Assistant to Comptroller for about one year. I am the senior of the 3 Probationers working in the Account Department and under your orders I have been for more than 3 years, in charge of the Local Fund and Excise Departments of the Comptroller's Office and I venture to hope I have worked to your satisfaction. I may add that I have passed the First Examination in Law of the Madras University as also the Mysore Local Service Revenue Examination. I request you to be kind enough to recommend me to the favourable consideration of the Government in Connexion with the filling up of the vacancy.

I beg to remain,

With reference to ~~your~~ your docket No.R4378 of 28th May 1903, I have the honor to state that in the absence of any Govt. orders finally laying down the rank, status, pay, and prospects of the Account Probationers of my Office, I am unable to say why they should not get on where they are. I can only state that the services of at least two trained men qualified by passing the Examination prescribed for Junior Enrolled Officers in British India and one Account Probationer will always be necessary for this Office in addition to those of the Assistant Comptroller and the Chief Assistant,

2. As Government have not yet been pleased to communicate their views or to pass any orders on the proposals made in my letter No.C. of 11-1-1897, I regret my inability to make any other proposals, at present.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

In continuation of my letter No. 132 dated 15th June last, I have the honor to submit for favourable consideration of Government letter from Mr. H. Krishna Rao Account Probationer of my office reporting his return to duty after undergoing training in the Madras Accountant General's Office and passing the Higher Departmental Examination for Enrolled Officers of the Subordinate Service Department.

In accordance with the decision of Government to Sub paras (2) and (3) of Government Order No. 4356/F1-349 dated 20th November 1899 and on recommendation of the Accountant General, Mr. H. Krishna Rao may be appointed with effect from the 1st April last, the date of the Examination in which he passed as Assistant to the Comptroller on an initial pay of Rs. 300/- rising to Rs. 450/- by an annual increment of Rs. 50/-.

I recommend Rs. 300/- as the initial pay for Mr. Krishna Rao instead of the minimum of Rs. 250/- proposed by Government in the order above quoted, as he had already qualified himself by his capacity, diligence & fidelity for an independant charge of a Department in this office for over 3 years and officiated as Chief Assistant for nearly a year, before he was sent out for training and passed the Higher Departmental Examination at one sitting and in the very first Examination for which he was permitted to appear.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

To

The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

I beg to report my return to duty this forenoon, after having undergone the training in the Accountant General's office Madras, for which I was deputed 8 months back. I request you to kindly permit me to avail myself of this opportunity to represent some facts in connection with my probation in order that they may be remembered at the time when the question of the termination of the probation and of my appointment to a substantive office is taken up for decision. Having passed the Mysore Civil Service Examination held in August 1897, I was entertained as a probationer in this office in November of the same year and I have thus been in service for nearly 6 years. It was in November 1902 -that is 5 years after my entertainment- that I was deputed to under training in Madras and afforded the opportunity to pass the Higher Departmental Examination prescribed for officers of the Enrolled List of the Financial Department of the Government of India. I t for the very first Examination held after my deputation to Madras and the Comptroller-General has declared that I have passed according to the standard observed for officers of the Enrolled List of the Financial Department- Vide Comptroller General's letter No 529 ~~C 2603~~ 12.6.03 to the Accountant General Madras. The training I have undregone is the same as that prescribed in Article 1645 of the Civil Account Code for a British Probationer, in whose case the Government of India requires a certificate from the Accountant General under whom he is placed for training, as to his having satisfied himself ~~if~~ that the Probationer has acquired a compe..t knowledge of the duties of the several branches of an account Office

-Vide para 7 of Article 1645 Civil Account Code. This Certificate also has been given in my case by the Accountant General Madras vide his letter No 77 dated 25th June 1903 to you. The British Probationers who undergo the same training as has been given to me and pass the same Examination as I have done, are confirmed on termination of their probation as Assistant Accountants General and Enrolled officers of the Sixth Class on Rs 400 a month, the ~~e~~nhance - ment of pay taking effect ~~officer~~ from the day on which the Examination ends. These Assistant Accountants General then rise by additions of Rs 200 ~~a month~~ from class to class. Their appointment substantively to this Sixth Class of Enrolled officers is generally within one year of their entertainment as probationers and their period of probation does not extend beyond one year unless they themselves contribute to prolong the period by not passing the Examination in time. In my case a period of nearly 6 years has elapsed without my being responsible for it and I beg you to kindly bring this fact to the notice of the Government. I believe my present position would have been much different from what it is now, if I had been enabled to take my training and pass my Examination within a year of my entertainment in service. My humble prayer is that the facts I have mentioned above may be kindly remembered when the Government fixes the initial pay on which I should start and the period which should be covered to reach the maximum of pay of the appointment, if the Government are pleased to make the latter a graded one.

I have the honor to be

The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore.

Sir,

With reference to Government Notification No Fl 470 dated 18th August 1903, appointing me Second Assistant Comptroller, I request you to kindly enlighten me on a point of doubt I entertain in reading the Government Order, in regard to the date from which I have been confirmed. Under the system in force in the Financial Department of the Government of India, on the lines of which, I was entertained, examined, and am now appointed to a substantive office, the Probationers are confirmed from the date on which the Examination in which they pass, terminates. As you are aware, the British Probationers pass the Examination and are confirmed within a year of their entry into service. As I have already represented, it was after a probation of nearly 6 years that I was enabled to pass the Examination. Under these circumstances I humbly venture to hope that I have been appointed Assistant Comptroller at least from the date of the Examination for which I was enabled to appear and in which I passed viz 13th May 1903.
